

No. 25

Fitzwilliam Place

A Georgian Mile Above the Rest.

THE STAPLETON | A CHAMPAGNE BAR

Restored with Love.

No. 25 Fitzwilliam Place has a long and storied history with spells as a Georgian family home in the 1800's, a doctor's private practice in the early 1900's, and a hub for business and banking in the late 1990's and early 2000's. Irish family-owned and managed since 2005, the Kelly family have lovingly restored No. 25 to its Georgian hey-day and its halls once again ring with the sounds of weddings, private dining and corporate business gatherings.

With a warm welcome, excellent food and flawless service, our expert events team at No. 25 guarantee that the legacy of hospitality that was a benchmark of the house in the 1800's continues to be felt today.

The Lovett Pearce Lounge

Tastefully decorated in keeping with the Georgian history of the building, this relaxing room is your first entry into our elegant townhouse and is the perfect place for welcoming your guests.

No. 25 hosts events on a one group per sitting basis so you'll be guaranteed full exclusivity of the house and lounge for the duration of your time with us.

The Eileen Gray

Located at the ground floor, the Eileen Gray accommodates 60 guests for pre-dinner drinks and canapés receptions.

Finished in a muted grey tone, the stylish room features a large floor to ceiling sash window overlooking the terrace to the townhouse.

This flexible space can be adapted to a variety of uses for your event, transforming easily from boardroom to drinks reception to a dancefloor with a live band or DJ.

The Gandon's

Located on the first floor, the Gandon rooms can accommodate up to 60 guests seated, or 80 guests for standing drinks and finger food.

The adjoining rooms are painted in a distinct navy blue and feature large floor to ceiling sash windows overlooking Fitzwilliam Place to the front. Oversized marble fireplaces blend with the walled plasterwork and carefully chosen artwork helps to provide a look that is impressive and elegant.

The Gandon rooms are linked by full height double doors, which epitomise the style of Georgian entertaining at one of Dublin's most prestigious addresses.
