Christmas

AT

The Shelbourne

Christmas at The Shelbourne arrives in a swirl of light, luxury and laughter. Since 1824, families and friends have gathered here to celebrate the season, and the cherished traditions of nearly two centuries of Christmas live on in every glittering detail of our holiday festivities.

The Shelbourne is the joyful centre of Dublin's holiday celebrations: here you are only steps away from world-class Christmas shopping on Grafton Street and the most exciting cultural areas of the city. After a frosty walk through the magical St. Stephen's Green, the warmest of welcomes awaits you back at the hotel.

THE SHELBOURNE

CELEBRATING CHRISTMAS SINCE 1824

Celebrate the Season

The Shelbourne has always been Dublin's most distinguished address, a by word for elegance and luxury, and the destination of those in the know.

Experience all the excitement and glamour of The Shelbourne at Christmas time. Every corner of this grand, historic hotel is adorned for the holiday, and every moment is perfectly orchestrated for enchantment. This is the most elegant and effortless way to experience Christmas: magnificently appointed guest rooms and suites, refined menus inspired by the flavours and aromas of the season, festive signature cocktails served in opulent surroundings, and impeccable service at every turn.

The Saddle Room

The Saddle Room

If there was ever a time and a place to indulge in feasting and all the culinary delights of the Christmas season, this is it. At this time of year, The Saddle Room has a very special atmosphere. The lavish comfort of this time-honoured favourite is the perfect setting for holiday gatherings, with old-fashioned Irish hospitality evoking the wonders of Christmas past, present and future.

The George Moore Suite

Named after the distinguished playwright and novelist, The George Moore Suite boasts a glittering crystal chandelier and magnificent views of St. Stephen's Green. An elegant escape from the Christmas bustle of the city outside and a beautiful setting for a merry evening with friends.

22 Guests

The Constitution Suite

The most famous room in The Shelbourne took its name from a momentous event in Irish history. This is where the Irish Constitution was first drafted in 1922, under the chairmanship of Michael Collins. With sumptuous silk wall coverings, a breathtaking crystal chandelier, and wonderful views of St. Stephen's Green, this is an unforgettable venue to share an evening of Christmas luxury with your guests.

24 Guests

The St. Stephen's Suite

St. Stephen's Green has often been called "The Shelbourne's garden", and it holds a special place in the history and heart of the hotel. Overlooking its namesake and with a stunning ornate ceiling and elegant crystal chandeliers, St. Stephen's Suite provides a glittering backdrop for your Christmas celebrations this year.

40 Guests

The Adam & Deirdre Suite

Elegant, extravagant, and imposing, the Adams Suite can host up to 80 guests for dinner with dancing in the adjoining Deirdre Suite. This is a spectacular stage for a holiday event your guests will remember long into the new year. A private bar, enchanting views of the bustling and beautiful St. Stephen's Green, silk wall coverings, ornate ceilings and dazzling chandelier all add to the warmth and majesty of these rooms.

80 Guests
