Why Bournemouth?

Bournemouth is home to a Seven mile stretch of sandy beaches with some of the warmest sea temperatures in the UK.

The Tripadvisor's Travellers Choice 2021 awards, revealed on Tuesday, rated Bournemouth as having the fifth best beach in Europe - and 20th best in the world.

The beauty of the area and abundance of outdoor activities makes Bournemouth an ideal choice for group visits. From fantastic cycling and walking routes, beautiful golf courses, a coast with endless water sports opportunities and a hotel that welcomes special interest groups, Bournemouth is a perfect destination for you every needs.

Level8ight The Sky Bar

Take a trip to our spectacular LEVEL8IGHT The Sky Bar, the highest bar in the South West with panoramic views over the town and enjoy a truly unforgettable experience.

Schpoons & Forx Restaurant

The hotels signature restaurant Schpoons & Forx is helmed by Matt Budden and his unique take on the British dish. With over a decade of experience, Matt is held in high regard with some of Dorset's finest purveyors of meat, fish and poultry.

Our chef has returned to his hometown where his culinary journey first started before travelling around the world working in a number of award-winning restaurants.

Creating menus that are tasty, honest and wholesome, he brings together local produce, sustainable sourcing and seasonal menus from our signature open kitchen – the food bursts with flavour, is created with passion and delivered with great culinary technique so you can enjoy only the best local and sustainable food.

Tonic Social

Local bites, craft beer and curated playlists. A new scene in Bournemouth for casual drinks served under a central pergola. Tonic Social is a modern, dynamic bar that sits underneath the Hilton. Inspired by Bournemouth's history, the bars interiors incorporate a blend of botanical and industrial design.

Adorned throughout with hanging foliage, weaving ivy and vines, Tonic Social integrates the outside and inside under one central pergola.

eForea Spa & Heath Club

As one of the first Spa towns, Bournemouth bloomed in the 1800s when affluent cosmopolitans began to flock to the resort for its healing pines and sea air. To this day, Bournemouth lives up to this title with an abundance of spa offerings all before the still beautiful seaside backdrop. Hilton Bournemouth's eForea Spa incorporates the essence of the coast with a range of Rivera-inspired treatments and packages.

While our 24-hour fitness centre is designed to suit you and your working schedule, do try to set aside some time to enjoy the beautiful eForea Spa during your stay. After all, it shouldn't be all work and no play.

Whether you take a quick dip in the indoor heated plunge pool or book in for a bespoke therapy session in one of our 4 tranquil treatment rooms, you'll be glad you took the time to rest, relax and recuperate after a hard working week.
