WELCOME TO THE BAGDEN HALL

We are looking forward to hosting your next meeting or conference. Built by a wealthy Victorian mill owner in the 1860s, Bagden Hall is a beautiful country house hotel with stunning grounds offering elegant accommodation and set in heart of West Yorkshire. It combines peace and elegance, with all that you will need to deliver a successful event, whether it be a product launch, business meetings, training or team building day, or impressive private dining.

Located between Leeds and Sheffield, and just 10 minutes from junction 39 of the M1, Bagden Hall is easily accessible for your delegates, wherever they are travelling from, and Yorkshire's lovely 'Last of The Summer Wine' country is on our doorstep, with the Peak District and Brontë country close by.

The hotel sits in 40 acres of secluded parkland, with its own lake. All our 36 bedrooms offer luxurious comfort, many with views over the beautiful grounds, and the we have two dining options - fine dining and more informal bistro - to suit your team and your event.

Our bespoke Orchard Suite, with its dedicated entrance, is perfect for up to 200 delegates, has its own facilities and terrace area, with further rooms for smaller meetings, events and presentations.
