EDWARDIAN HOTELS LONDON

Edwardian Hotels London is a privately owned hospitality group with more than 40 years of caring for guests.

We pride ourselves on being at the forefront of anticipating guests' needs and are dedicated to creating hotels where guests feel that they belong.

Edwardian Hotels London is one of the UK's largest privately owned hotel groups, which has been operating and developing its hospitality portfolio, including upscale five and four-star luxury hotels, since Jasminder Singh OBE began his career within the hospitality industry in 1977; forming the beginnings of what would become Edwardian Hotels London.

Today, Edwardian owns and operates The Londoner, a member of Preferred Hotels & Resorts' prestigious Legend Collection; The May Fair and The Edwardian Manchester, both part of premium lifestyle brand Radisson Collection; and 10 Radisson hotels across London. The group also owns a collection of restaurants, bars and spas.

HOTEL OVERVIEW

One Line Hotel Description

Iconic Address. Unforgettable Charm.

Short Hotel Description (50 words)

Located in London's most exclusive neighbourhood, The May Fair Hotel is moments from Bond Street and Green Park underground station. The five-star hotel features 404 rooms and suites, complimentary high-speed Wi-Fi up to 150Mbps, May Fair Kitchen, May Fair Bar, gym, spa and event spaces for up to 370 guests.

Medium Hotel Description (up to 250 words)

Since 1927, The May Fair has welcomed guests to stay in one of London's most iconic neighbourhoods and experience the delightful tradition of Mayfair hospitality. Set just behind Berkeley Square, guests are moments from exclusive shopping on Bond Street, green spaces in Hyde Park and Green Park, as well as the nightlife of Soho and the West End.

The five-star hotel is home to the popular May Fair Bar with its signature cocktails, whilst the award-winning flagship restaurant May Fair Kitchen serves contemporary Italian, Spanish, Peruvian, Mexican, Mediterranean and Japanese small plates. Guests discover relaxation and harmony in the spacious bedrooms and suites, where luxe furnishings and amenities provide the perfect sanctuary when downtime is needed. Mind and body are seen to in May Fair Spa, featuring a 24-hour gym and a tranquil multi-facility spa with world-renowned Omorovicza treatments.

A beautiful place for weddings, events and conferences, The May Fair's unique spaces also play host to popular events for up to 370 guests.

Long Hotel Description (up to 500 words)

Since 1927, The May Fair has welcomed guests to stay in one of London's most iconic neighbourhoods and experience the delightful tradition of Mayfair hospitality. Set just behind Berkeley Square, guests are moments from exclusive shopping on Bond Street, green spaces in Hyde Park and Green Park, as well as the nightlife of Soho and the West End. Designer boutiques on Mount Street and galleries on Dover Street are a mere five-minute walk away, whilst neighbouring Green Park underground station connects to London Victoria in just one stop.

The May Fair Hotel is a true lifestyle destination where guests find everything they need. The spacious bedrooms and suites provide comfort and harmony with handcrafted Vispring mattresses and Egyptian cotton bedding. May Fair Bar presents the perfect scene for cocktails and nightlife, whilst the award-winning flagship restaurant May Fair Kitchen has something for every taste: carefully curated wines and cocktails are served alongside a menu with Italian and Spanish small plates, including additional signature Peruvian, Mexican, Mediterranean and Japanese dishes from the other sister Kitchens.

Guests looking to take care of mind and body during their stay can energise in the Technogym-equipped 24-hour May Fair Gym, or leave London's hustle and bustle behind in May Fair Spa, where world-renowned Omorovicza products and a variety of treatments help to unwind and relax.

The May Fair Hotel's unique event spaces are perfect for anything from conferences or product launches to weddings and other celebrations. The grand Crystal Room, which houses up to 370 standing or 220 for lunch/dinner, is the hotel's pièce de résistance – crowned with a six-metre Baccarat crystal chandelier.

HERITAGE

Following its inauguration in 1927 by King George V and Queen Mary, The May Fair Hotel became London society's playground. The young and affluent whirled around the ballroom alongside royalty, providing an oasis of enjoyment for guests to forget the outside world once the war came. During the fifties and sixties under the ownership of Hollywood's Danziger brothers, the hotel became a theatrical showpiece in itself. A private cinema and theatre were built, alongside a pool bar housing real caiman crocodiles.

BEDROOMS & SUITES

Each of the bedrooms and suites at The May Fair Hotel features contemporary décor, with British handcrafted Vispring mattresses, goose down pillows and 350 thread count Egyptian cotton bedding. The spacious Italian marble bathrooms all have power showers and awardwinning and sustainable REN Clean Skincare amenities, whilst 300-channel Samsung TVs and complimentary high-speed Wi-Fi up to 150Mbps on unlimited devices allows for unrestricted entertainment.

The neighbourhood's opulence is best echoed in the hotel's signature suites. All designed with unique individuality, they benefit from added luxuries such as Sonos systems, freestanding bathtubs and rain showers, separate areas for dining and relaxing, 24-hour butler service, as well as outdoor terraces with spectacular views in the Penthouse and Ebony Suites. In keeping with the hotel's commitment to fashion, the Schiaparelli Suite is named after the famed designer and is draped in her signature fuchsia tones.

RESTAURANTS & BARS

May Fair Kitchen

As the Edwardian Hotels London's flagship Kitchen, May Fair Kitchen offers a menu of contemporary Italian and Spanish small plates, in addition to signature contemporary Peruvian, Mexican, Mediterranean and Japanese dishes from its sister Kitchens. Reserve wines and cocktails complement the menu, alongside the restaurant's soft industrial design, moody drop lighting and natural furnishings.

May Fair Kitchen has created a unique and award-winning afternoon tea together with master chocolatiers Charbonnel et Walker, which takes chocolate indulgences to a whole new level; chocolate doughnuts, tiramisu and signature truffles are just some of them. Often praised in the press, its essence was perhaps best described by Vogue as "a chocaholic's dream come true".

The restaurant also has a secluded chambre séparée where groups of up to 64 people can enjoy a private dining experience, tucked away in a space with plenty of character - think antique walnut parquet flooring, dark wood panelling and a grand emerald fireplace.

TALKING POINTS

Lobby/Hotel History

- The plaque in the lobby commemorates when The May Fair was opened in 1927 by King George V and Queen Mary, who toured and approved it before opening to the public. It was the first hotel to open in London for 20 years.
- The blue plaque on the hotel's exterior pays homage to Bert Ambrose, a dance band leader who lived and played here between 1927 and 1940.
- In the 1950s, the hotel was bought by the Danziger brothers, two Hollywood film producers. They built a cinema for the local community
 - which still stands today
 - plus a bar with waterfalls and real caiman crocodiles.
- The hotel has for several years running been a partner to BFI Film Festival and The Official Hotel of London Fashion Week, which means you often spot celebrities and Hollywood stars walking around the hotel.

May Fair Kitchen

- May Fair Kitchen is our award-winning flagship restaurant, offering a menu of contemporary Italian and Spanish small plates, in addition to signature contemporary Peruvian, Mediterranean, Japanese and Mexican from the sister Kitchens.
- We are also proud of our special chocolate afternoon tea that has been created together with master chocolatier, Charbonnel et Walker. Bearing the Royal Warrant insignia, the iconic Bond Street-based chocolatier has been crafting the finest couverture since 1875.
- Breakfast is served here between 06.30am-10.30am Monday-Friday, and 7.30am-11.30am Saturday-Sunday.
- Lunch is served Monday-Friday 12pm-2.30pm, and Saturday-Sunday 12.30pm-3pm.
- Afternoon tea is served Monday-Friday 2pm-4.30pm, and Saturday- Sunday 1pm-4.30pm.
- Dinner is served Sunday-Thursday 6pm-10.30pm, and Friday-Saturday 6pm-11pm.
- Lounge bar is open every day 12pm-1am.
- Our chefs have also created a dedicated vegan menu.

May Fair Bar

- May Fair Bar is a lively and buzzing spot for drinks and small plates. Come here for the weekend DJs and award-winning cocktails that balance the classic and the contemporary, using fresh herbs and homemade ingredients. Try The Stratton Street G&T or the Cognac Royale.
- The bar often collaborates with renowned drink brands to host pop-up residencies within the space (mention the current collaboration).
- Breakfast is available here Monday-Friday 8am-11am.
- Small plates menu is available Monday-Tuesday 5pm-10pm, Wednesday-Saturday 5pm-11pm.
- The bar is open Monday-Tuesday 8am-11pm, Wednesday-Friday 8am-1am, Saturday 11am-1am, Sunday closed.
- We also host cocktail masterclasses here. (Host to specify and give details on next upcoming masterclass).

May Fair Spa

- Our May Fair Spa offers treatments and massages in a calm setting.
- Facilities include an aromatic steam room, herbal sauna, experience showers, ice fountain and candlelit relaxation room with heated beds. These are open Monday-Friday 6am-10pm, Saturday 7am-8pm, and Sunday 8am-8pm.
- Treatments are available Monday-Friday 9am-7.45pm, Saturday- Sunday 9am-6.45pm.
- Our gym is open 24 hours a day, and has world-class equipment from Technogym.enu.

Theatre and Crystal Room

- The centrepiece of the Crystal Room is a six-metre Baccarat crystal chandelier, specially commissioned for the hotel.

TALKING POINTS

MICE

- Our hotel is perfect for a variety of meetings and events, with the Crystal Room catering for up to 370 guests reception style.
- The entire first floor is self-contained and can be hired exclusively, which includes the Danziger Suite (220 reception), The Atrium (150 reception) and 11 private suites (100 theatre style), as well as private cloakrooms and restrooms.
- May Fair Theatre has 201 seats and is perfect for product launches, private screenings and previews.
- The Private Dining room is an atmospheric place for intimate dinners, seating up to 64 guests.
- Edward is a unique AI virtual host created specifically to assist our meeting and event planners and guests. Edward is at your disposal 24/7 via the convenience of SMS or through the app, allowing you to communicate directly and discreetly with our operations team without disturbing your meeting.

Edward

- Meet your virtual host, Edward. Available 24/7, Edward replies to questions and requests via SMS text messaging or through the app. Powered by AI technology, he speaks more than 59 languages and can help with anything from room service orders to breakfast times.

Shops, Attractions and Consumption

- To experience the quaint, village side of Mayfair, take a five-minute stroll to Shepherd Market, where a picturesque square is home to oldfashioned pubs and shops.
- We are lucky to be just a six-minute walk from the Royal Academy of Arts. (Host to mention any current exhibition).
- Another, lesser known attraction in Mayfair is the Royal Institution. This is a centre for science, where talks and lectures are held on a range of subjects from the future of technology to the state of the environment. The talks are fun and very accessible and are suitable for adults and children alike.
- An eight-minute walk will get you to Berry Bros. and Rudd, a must-see destination for wine-enthusiasts. The shop has been selling wine in this location since 1698, and its cellars are even older. Lord Byron and William Pitt were frequent visitors, and Napoleon held secret meetings in its cellars while he was in exile.
- For men's clothing, Savile Row has a long tradition of providing the finest tailoring - and it's only seven minutes' walk from the hotel.
- Buckingham Palace is just a short walk away, and the Queen's official china maker is also located in Mayfair. Visit Thomas Goode, just a nineminute walk from the hotel, if you would like to purchase the china that is used in the Royal Palaces.

CONNECTIVITY & TECHNOLOGY

The May Fair Hotel utilises its dedicated in-house technology team to ensure that guests receive exceptional service – before, during and after their visit. Guests can access complimentary, high-speed Wi-Fi up to 150Mbps on multiple devices throughout the entire hotel, allowing them to stream, surf and share uninterrupted.

We have partnered with Samsung and BT to provide our guests with a great in-room experience, including: Smart Samsung HD LED TVs; BT internet with seamless download speeds of up to 150Mbps; and Sonos 5.1 Home Cinemas – so guests can relax and enjoy highquality film screenings.

Edwardian Hotels London won Gold in the category ‘Best Use of Technology’ at the Catey Awards 2020.

Direct Book

Edwardian Hotels London has also developed a booking solution for small meetings. Built by Edwardian Hotels London’s own in-house software developers, this tool interfaces directly with each hotel’s Property Management System, providing event planners with access to live availability of small meeting spaces, across its portfolio in London and Manchester. This enables planners to procure this space immediately providing a quick, seamless and secure experience.

Wifi

Edwardian Hotels London is proud to be working in collaboration with BT, one of the world’s leading communications providers, to bring you the very latest and best Wi-Fi technology throughout the hotel. Featuring industry-leading speeds of up to 150Mbps, our Wi-Fi is a simple one-click process available on unlimited devices, providing ease of access without impeding on security.

Edward App

Developed by Edwardian Hotels London, Edward is a unique AI virtual host created specifically to assist our guests and meeting and event planners. Edward is available 24/7 via the convenience of SMS or through the app, allowing guests and event organisers to ask questions and make requests quickly and conveniently.

Hybrid Meetings

Hybrid meetings offer the perfect blend of real interaction and the convenience of a virtual set-up. Our reliable technology infrastructure means no more lost connections, misunderstandings or frustrating dips in service. Meet with people in various locations with HD image clarity, crisp sound and uninterrupted connectivity.

SECURITY

Edwardian Hotels London uses service, training and technology to counter potential security-related issues and ensure that our spaces are safe for guests and employees. Security training is central to staff inductions, where all new staff members receive training from a member of the security team.

SUSTAINABILITY

Edwardian Hotels London engages in multiple initiatives that reduce the use of energy, minimise carbon footprint and water and food wastage across its properties. These include actively looking at alternative products and packaging to reduce single-use plastics, achieving reduced carbon emission goals, improving training on responsible business, using locally sourced produce where possible and using recyclable items in meeting rooms.

PARTNERSHIPS

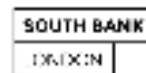

For several decades, Edwardian Hotels London has contributed to the fabric of our neighbourhoods. The diversity and long-standing nature of Edwardian's network of partners has created a trusted link between key organisations across the arts and culture, trade, education, and technology sectors. We are proud partners of London Fashion Week, BFI London Film Festival, Donmar Warehouse, Francis Crick Institute, and Imperial College London, to name a few.

Arts and Culture

Our passion for arts and culture runs throughout our business. We truly believe that the incredible breadth of everything on offer in the UK, from stand-up comedy to opera to pantomime, inspires our people and guests to think creatively. We are located moments away from some of the most prestigious theatres and museums in the world. Our properties have been designed to accommodate screenings, installations and window displays. Their central locations position them as a gateway for many of our guests to experience everything from exhibitions and musicals to ballet.

Technology

We know that technology allows us to progress our business. It empowers our hosts to give a seamless service. It ensures that our meeting rooms are cutting edge. It allows us to offer guests a true home from home experience, so that they can use devices, access the internet and watch TV effortlessly. Our partners are experts in providing quality, end-to-end services and products to help us give our guests and staff what they need, and when they need it. We work with BT, so that our guests can enjoy high-speed, complimentary and unlimited Wi-Fi, up to 150Mbps, on as many devices as they desire across our properties, ensuring on-going reliability of streaming. Our partnership with Microsoft has streamlined and made processes more efficient by integrating current systems onto Microsoft 365. Edwardian Hotels London staff also benefit from their latest hardware and software.

PARTNERSHIPS

Education & Training

We are a responsible business investing back into the cities where we are based. We believe in the importance of supporting the local economy through providing skills-based learning for our people. We are working to develop our industry's future decision-makers through education and practical training. We want our Hosts of tomorrow to know that we will give them the tools that they need to be successful.

We are dedicated to the personal growth of our people and our relationship with Imperial College London Business School is testament to that. We are providing staff with not only increased business acumen, but also broadening their experiences and understanding of the world as a whole.

Charity

We are committed to supporting a number of charities each year, many of which are within our local communities. We offer support through the skills of our employees and the business's own resources. We also provide an access fund for our staff each month, which allows them to nominate a charity which is close to their heart to support.

We are a proud corporate fundraising partner of Cancer Research UK's biomedical discovery institute, the Francis Crick Institute, to finance critical research in order to improve understanding of human health and disease. We also worked with the Prince's Trust on their Get Into Hospitality campaign.

PARTNERSHIPS

Membership Associations & Trade Partnerships

We think our business is stronger when we work alongside others. Our industry is constantly evolving and we feel that collaborating with other experts allows us to keep learning. We sit at the table with key sector organisations and we are at the heart of decision-making about the future of London as a global city.

Our relationships with multiple membership associations and trade partnerships enable us to grow, but also give us the opportunity to share our knowledge with others.

Finally, in recognition of the work we do alongside our partners, Edwardian Hotels London has been awarded Superbrands status for 13 consecutive years. We have worked hard to maintain our position in the list of the UK's strongest brands, and look forward to continuing to create unforgettable experiences for our guests.

Pollen Street Social

As hot as a freshly blasted rib-eye & as cool as tarragon ice cream, Jason Atherton's standalone restaurant has shot to the top since its launch. Pitched as a dressed-down 'social' venue, it bristles with confidence, energy & noise.

8-10 Pollen Street, W1S 1NQ

Brat

He was an instant hit when he started at Kitty Fisher's so all eyes were on Tomos Parry for his next venture. An impressive open kitchen sets the scene, making the cooking over fire central to the restaurant experience.

4 Redchurch St, London E1 6JL

Core by Clare Smyth

Clare Smyth was in charge of Gordon Ramsay's Royal Hospital Road restaurant, keeping its three stars for a number of years. So all eyes were on Michelin to see how they'd reward her own place - which they did by taking it straight to two stars - a big accolade.
