

MOST POPULAR 2023 COMPANY KICKSTARTER EVENTS & ACTIVITIES

KICKSTART YOUR 2023 THE RIGHT WAY

Organising your 2023 kickstarter event can be a daunting task for any company or organiser. That's why we take that pain away with a dedicated account, project and event manager, who will manage your event from start to finish.

Our seasoned event professionals will organise the perfect venue in the ideal location for all your event requirements.

Team building events and activities have never been as important as they are now. They are the perfect way to bring everyone back together be that virtually or physically.

TOP 4 INDOOR EVENTS

Indoor team building events are ideal for the winter months where the weather is a big consideration. They can also work well as part of a meeting or conference where a quick experience is required with minimal setup and disruption.

Indoor team building events such as Charity Bike Build and Qubed are extremely versatile. They can be set up in small spaces, or the actual conference or meeting room. These events are often run before or after any business content. We turn the room around whilst the groups are at lunch, giving a great change and element of surprise on return. We offer over 100 unique experiences and events including:

QUBED

One of our most popular team-building events for 2023, packed full of head-to-head challenges that will not only test your teams' skills but also your nerves. Our Qubed event works for small and large teams that are looking for something different.

MASTER OF THE TASKS

Inspired by the hilarious TV show, Master of the Tasks challenges teams with a hilarious selection of team games that will literally have your people in stitches of laughter, we kid you not! There are different types of tasks to suit everyone. Some team-based, some individual, somewhere players from other teams are nominated, creative tasks, skill tasks, and some random curve ballers.

CHARITY BIKE BUILD

If you're looking for an activity or experience that offers real team purpose and value, as well as giving to a much-needed cause, then definitely consider this. The event is designed around teams building bicycles from scratch, before being donated to underprivileged children in Africa.

WALL STREET WINNERS

Carefully designed to test the most relevant business skills and build teamwork, Wall Street Winners will have even the quietest members of your team frantically racing around negotiating deals, deducing strategies, and trying to forecast the next market trend. The team will buy and sell shares at the most opportune moments to reap the highest financial benefit possible before constructing a corporate tower to sell for even more money.

TOP 4 VIRTUAL EVENTS

Virtual events can still be held in conjunction with live events or worked as a hybrid experience with people in different locations. Having delivered over 1000 virtual events since the first lockdown, we have the right event to suit any group.

All activities are hosted by live compere's who guarantee you a hassle-free, upbeat, enjoyable experience where you'll get 100% engagement and interaction. Take on our amazing escape rooms, try your luck at horse racing, or see if you can solve our intriguing murder mystery! We offer over 100 unique experiences and events including:

VIRTUAL MASTER OF TASKS

Presented virtually, all games are designed to be completed by using items in your house but you need to think outside the box and be creative to impress the Task Master. The games come in all shapes and sizes and are only revealed when our compere/host who plays the role of the Master of Tasks opens each task's golden envelope.

VIRTUAL MURDER MYSTERY

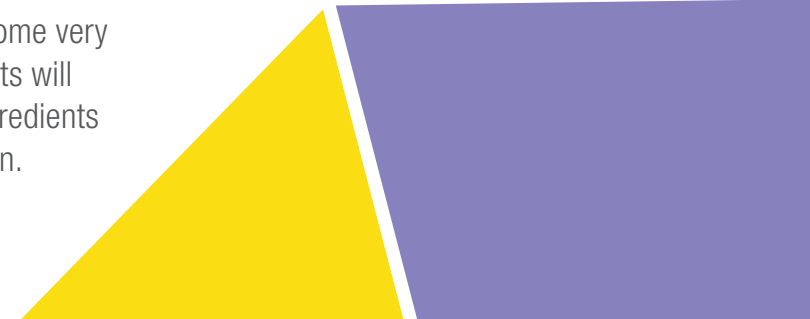

A great virtual event to get your teeth into in 2023. You have been brought in to investigate a murder that has happened at Cadaver Manor. You and your team will need to unlock key evidence such as interviews from suspects and examining witness statements. Using augmented reality and image recognition technology, will you be able to solve the murder?

VIRTUAL ESCAPE ROOM

An amazing remote team-building experience where small groups work in unison to decipher all kinds of clues riddles and challenges to escape the virtual room. It's a tense head-to-head experience against the clock, where teams have to share ideas and answers to progress and avoid getting locked in.

VIRTUAL COCKTAIL MAKING

Guided by our virtual mixologists, they will demonstrate before you try some very cool techniques virtually on how to mix and flair some very tasty cocktails or mocktails. In advance, guests will receive a pre-event pack including all the ingredients they will need to create their cocktail selection.

TOP 4 OUTDOOR EVENTS

Outdoor team building events are the ideal way to get your people outside in the fresh air. They can let their hair down, relax and have some serious fun.

Getting out of the office can make a huge difference to team motivation and morale. Outdoor team building events bring out a great level of energy and enthusiasm, which is always migrated back to the workplace. There isn't much that beats team spirit other than getting out in the fresh air and enjoying yourselves with colleagues, especially when the sun's out! We offer over 100 unique experiences and events including:

CRYSTAL CHALLENGE

This is one of our most popular outdoor events and experience. Hosted by our energetic host, in teams, you will have to compete in a mix of activities dashing between Aztec, Medieval, Industrial and Futuristic zones, to win those important crystals and seconds in the final dome.

GPS TREASURE HUNT

We have taken location-based team building to the next level. Using cutting-edge technology, we'll have your teams working together walking around a chosen city to answer interactive questions and complete brilliantly compiled challenges that will motivate and inspire. We set up the entire experience including start and finish location, and custom writes each team-building treasure hunt for your group.

SOAP BOX DERBY

Soap Box Derby is a hilarious activity that brings out the best in people. This is our very own, slightly tamed-down version of the race hosted by Redbull, seeing teams plan, design, and build the ultimate wacky racer. There are several heats all based on teams' creativity and innovation.

SURVIVAL ISLAND

Your team has been stranded on a remote island with no signs of civilisation. All you have is what you have scavenged from the beach. Using your initiatives and the skills we're about to teach you, can you take on and survive 'The Island'? Each survival task is designed to involve every team member. Using what nature has to offer, teams must draw upon resourcefulness and ingenuity, whilst applying the core skills of teamwork.

TOP 4 CONFERENCE ENERGISERS

Conference energisers are a simple way to inject some energy into your conference or meetings. The purpose of these events is to, quite literally, to energise and move people from a state of disengagement to engaged.

Conference energisers can vary in time from 10 minutes to an hour. They provide engagement, entertainment and stimulation at a chosen time in a meeting, notably the start of the day, after lunch or midway through. We offer over 100 unique experiences and events including:

BOOMWHACKERS

Boomwhacker workshops are the ideal conference energiser and are an exciting and action-packed icebreaker for any corporate event or business meeting. The Boomwhacker challenge is a fast-paced musical activity that breathes excitement into your event; motivating and transforming your delegates to sound instantly united, reinforcing your key corporate messages.

YOGA ENERGISER

Yoga Team Building is based on engaging and interacting with the people around us. The activity involves stretching, relaxing, and laughing together in order to provide a fun atmosphere, a perfect addition to your next conference. Providing the opportunity to have a different type of conference energiser event, our Yoga Team Build brings everyone together to build trust and have fun!

HAKA ENERGISER

Probably known best as the pre-match performance by The All Blacks New Zealand Rugby Union Team, the HAKA is a historical tribal dance by the Maori People of New Zealand. Led by your HAKA leader, you and your team will perform in your very own awe-inspiring and engaging tribal dance to energise and motivate your team or simply add another dimension to your corporate day.

JUNK FUNK

Transform your team into a high-energy orchestra, using nothing more than everyday junk. Our Junk Funk team will show you the melody, the tone, and the rhythms before it's over to you to turn. This fun activity combines rhythm, movement, and great team spirit. No musical ability is needed, just a willingness to trust your facilitators and colleagues, and to try something new.

TOP 4 LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT

Events offer a full portfolio of interactive learning and development workshops. Each workshop is tailored to your team and designed with content to engage their minds in a way that messages and values are more powerfully delivered. We call this experiential learning.

All our learning and development platforms are designed to improve the team and individual performance by developing & increasing core skills and knowledge. Solutions and strategies are designed to support group and individual objectives, plus increased performance, aligned to your organisation's overall visions and goals. We dovetail the learning outcomes with fun practical experiences to allow teams to put the theory into practice and experience the results. We offer over 100 unique experiences and events including:

CHIMP PARADOX

Understanding how to get yourself and your team in a good place are essential for both personal and professional performance. Using The Chimp Model, simplify the complexities of neuroscience to offer valuable insight into the functioning of the mind to improve psychological well-being and performance. All are designed to improve the performance of your team and increase the probability of organisational success.

SDI

SDI: Strength Deployment Inventory is a very powerful and effective platform for individuals and teams to understand and influence the motives that drive behaviours. SDI explores people's basic need to better understand themselves and those around them.

MYERS BRIGGS

The Myers–Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI) is an internationally recognised introspective self-report questionnaire with the purpose of indicating differing psychological preferences in how people perceive the world around them and make decisions. This event explores the Myers Briggs profile and helps you understand how this impacts learning, communication, planning and delivering.

INSIGHTS DISCOVERY

This programme introduces the Insights Discovery model of behaviours and personal profiles. During this interactive programme we investigate who we are as individuals – our strengths and challenges, our communication preferences and motivations, and crucially how our behaviour may affect those around us.
