Hot Bites

Less fussy, more filling

Looking for something deliciously satisfying and mess-free that you can confidently eat in a social setting?

Look no further than our Hot Bites menu. Promising the same elegant craftsmanship we use for our canapés, but on a more substantial scale, our Hot Bites are more filling, less fussy and equally as divine! They will arrive cold, simply follow our easy re-heating instructions and voila! Exquisite, handmade canapés ready to plate and serve fresh from the oven. No kitchen facilities available? Not to worry, we can arrange for our portable ovens to be delivered to your venue.

Please note, some items from this menu may require assembly by a chef which we can provide if needed.
Additional costs incurred.

About CanapéBox?

We make high quality delicious canapés, hand made for each individual order. Born out of an event catering background delivering first class events and receptions, CanapéBox was created to be the very best party canapé catering and delivery service in and around London. It was developed in the recognition that our clients were looking for just canapés and finger food without the fuss, expense and risk of engaging traditional caterers. Maximum taste, minimum fuss!

Delivered on time in our custom designed recyclable transport trays, complete with chill packs, you can simply plate and serve when you are ready. No refrigeration space needed as our canapés will stay chilled for four hours after delivery.

A year round service that keeps on trend and is always reliable, with last minute turnaround for the unexpected or spontaneous party.

"We have been using CanapéBox for years and I cannot recommend them enough. The food is always delicious and we are forever being asked where the canapés are from. The service is always impeccable and delivery so easy. From canapés for 200 for parties, to nibbles for 10 at a dinner party, they're my absolute go-to and the cherry on top - fantastically priced."
