Balcony Room

A PENTHOUSE PRIVATE DINING ROOM WITH BALCONY, OVERLOOKING THE RIVER THAMES

The light and airy Balcony Room is an exclusive venue hire in London with remarkable views of the iconic riverside. Floor to ceiling French windows open onto the private balcony with its backdrop of St Paul's Cathedral, the Thames, and Shakespeare's Globe.

The stylish Balcony Room, with its elegant, panelled green walls, statement chandelier and abundant natural light, can be hired for private celebrations, corporate meetings, and dinners.

A table made from a single oak tree that fell in the Great Storm of 1987 can seat 32 guests at one table and on the walls are twenty prints of Henri Matisse's 'Jazz'. These brightly coloured pictures were originally intended as covers for French art magazine 'Verve' in 1954 and were inspired by circus and theatre.

This unique space has lift access, its own private bar and cloakroom.

Bull Room

A PRIVATE DINING TABLE SET WITHIN THE MAIN SWAN RESTAURANT, WITH VIEWS OF THE RIVER THAMES AND SHAKESPEARE'S GLOBE

Named for the magnificent bull mosaic by sculptor Dido Crosby, daughter of Theo Crosby the architect who built Shakespeare's Globe, the Bull Room is one of the most spectacular private dining tables in London. With incomparable views of Shakespeare's Globe and across the Thames to St Paul's Cathedral, this is a stunning setting for family celebrations, private dinners, and business lunches.

The glass and copper doors separate the Bull Room from the buzz of the Swan's main restaurant, giving you and your guests privacy while still allowing you to soak up the atmosphere.
