Corporate Golf Days

Surrounded by 543 acres of stunning parkland and the immaculate greens of two championship golf courses The Melbourne Club is the perfect setting for your corporate golf event, the ideal addition to your conference, meeting or retreat at Bocket Hall.

Our two highly regarded championship courses, the Melbourne and the Palmerston named after the two Prime Ministers who resided at Bocket Hall are set within the contours of the 18th Century parkland and take full advantage of the mature landscaping. As such, they provide a challenging and varied game for golfers of all abilities.

The Golf Academy includes a par 3 six-hole course that provides a useful short course when time is at a premium. In addition, tuition is available from one of our team of Golf Professionals who have a proven ability in teaching all levels from beginners through to professionals. Our professionals are now assisted in their instruction by a state-of-the-art swing analysis computer, allowing each player's golf swing to be fully assessed.

Our courses are open year-round, and we offer different packages across the year. If we do not have a package to fit with the brief, a bespoke proposal can be put together for your golf day.

The Oak Room has magnificent panoramic views across the estate and the Broadwater Lake. With vaulted ceilings, a private terrace and the capacity to seat up to 140 guests, the Oak Room offers the perfect space for your golf day.
